

You have no ASPICE experience but still need to comply with the guidelines?

Almost all OEMs require their suppliers to adhere to ASPICE standards for automotive development.

We often see a gap in in-house ASPICE expertise among our clients.

OUR APPROACH

- We understand your needs
- We develop a roadmap
- We refine the steps and phases to implement ASPICE
- We implement ASPICE together with you

YOUR BENEFITS

You get an Intacs Provisional Assessor

- certified expertise on board

You get Audit-proven support

- multiple successful official audits

You get external perspectives

- objective insights for measureable improvement
